Request:

...due to the re-moderation of the following module: Independent Study - Practical Production Project 6MZ009.

1. I have been advised to request under the Freedom of Information act the effects of the re-mark on the other students within my course, and the rise or fall in re-moderated grades given.
2. I need to know this information to know how many other students within my course were effected by this re-moderation process.
3. Could you please clarify this with also the number of students on my course".

Response:Q1.

We can confirm that reporting on grades for the present year 2013/14 are not available yet as they are not due to be reported to the Higher Education Statistics Agency (HESA) until the 30 October 2014.

Q2.

The University will not be able to provide you with data relating to other students within your course and the possible 'effect of re-mark...and the rise and fall in re-moderated grades given' for these students.

The following exemption is applicable to the information requested:
Section 40(2) Personal Information

Q3.

The following figures are the numbers which will be provided in the 2013/14 HESA return. These figures are readily available and therefore can be disclosed to you at this time.

- Number of students on BA Broadcasting and Journalism: 59
- Number of students on module Independent Study - Practical Production Project 6MZ009: 40
