Recognise

Respond

Report

Refer

Record

Safeguarding Issue Identified If an Individual is at immediate risk of harm call 999, emergency services is the individual a child, apprentice learner or adult at risk? Yes No The University Safeguarding Team The individual concerned should be must be made aware of the situation as provided with the relevant support depending on the Safeguarding leave soon as possible, through the safeguarding referral form via the Identified; details on support and further services provided by the University can be located here: following link: https://www.wlv.ac.uk/about -us/ corporate -information/safeguarding/ https://www.wiv.ac.uk/current -atudents/ student-support/mental -health-andwellbeing -advice/ All referrals will be reviewed by the Safeguarding Team Regularly during https://www.wiv.ac.uk/about -ua/ office hours corporate -information/safeguarding/ The Safeguarding Team will determine what process to follow depending on the nature of the concern, this will include whether the concern will need to be discussed with any external agencies.

It is important to acknowledge that the individual may require ongoing support following a safeguarding or welfare concern being identified and therefore a support plan with regular review meetings may need to be implemented in addition to any external support that this individual may be receiving.