

University of Wolverhampton &
Early Education Midlands Branch
present:

'Values in Early Years Practice'

Early Years Conference, Saturday 18th June, 2022

9am Arrival and breakfast

9:30 - 10:15 Key Note Speaker I

Dr. Faye Stanley: Principal Lecturer & Head of Early Childhood, Young People and Developing Professional Practice at University of Wolverhampton.

"An Exploration of English and Swedish Pre-School Teachers' Perspectives on Their Role and Values"

10:15 - 11:15 Pop-Up Pedagogy I

Bite sized presentations from a range of practitioners, with a values focus.

- Fullbrook Nursery School: 'Valuing Sustainability and Citizenship'
- Sally Lynch: 'Children's Voices in Reception'
- Highters Heath Nursery School: 'Intergenerational Learning'
- Dr. Val Daniel: 'Reflecting on the power and influence to shape the lives of children'

11:15 - 11:30 Break & Refreshments

11:30 - 12:30 Pop-Up Pedagogy II

Bite sized presentations from a range of practitioners, with a values focus.

- Lianne Tetsall: 'Interactions and Stimulating Environments in Outdoor Spaces- Reflections on Young Children's Engagement'
- Goodway Nursery School: 'A Rights Respecting Nursery School - Changing Practice'
- Jenny Carver & Naficika Solomon: 'Impact of GEB ITT Action Plans, "A lending library and a snack cafe"'
- Caroline Acton: 'Embedding Inclusive Practice'

12:30 - 1:15 Key Note Speaker II

Dr. Helen Lyndon, Senior Researcher and Post Graduate Programme Lead at The Centre for Research in Early Childhood (CREC).

'Participatory Practice - Supporting a Listening Pedagogy'

1:15 Closing Remarks / Conference Close

Room WA007, University of Wolverhampton,
Walsall Campus, Gorway Road, WS1 3BD

£5 for Early Education Members

Only £10 for Non-Members

FREE for Students

Booking via Eventbrite/ Early Education website

