Overview

As a student on a Study Semester Abroad Scholarship programme, you will be taught on a degree course by highly qualified staff in classes where you can interact with British and international students. You can take advantage of the facilities of a modern British university while experiencing life in the UK. At the end of your stay, you receive a transcript which can be used for credit exchange with your home university.

The University is based in the centre of the UK and has several campuses close to each other, each with specialist areas of teaching.

The University of Wolverhampton has three faculties, each with several specialist academic schools teaching courses covering a wide range of subjects.

Undergraduate programmes available

On the Study Semester Abroad Scholarship programme, you can choose and gain credits from any first or second year module related to your area of interest (subject to availability and academic level).

Your chosen modules do not always have to relate to your major in your home university, but home universities may stipulate that modules must correspond with your degree subject for credit purposes. Students will be guided on arrival as to appropriate modules based on their academic and language levels.

The University of Wolverhampton website has the complete range of courses available. To take a look at courses and modules that match your studies at home, visit: wlv.ac.uk/courses

From there you can find modules that match your requirements. If you are doing a 4 year degree, you must have completed your first year before joining us and select level four modules only. Level 5 modules are only suitable for students who have completed connected modules at level 4.

Example structure

You will study 60 credits per semester.

If your English language level is below IELTS 6 (or equivalent) you will study:

- ▶ 1 x English 20-credit module and 2 x 20-credit academic modules per semester.

If your English language level is IELTS 6 or above (or equivalent) you will study:

- ▶ 3 x 20-credit modules or 2 x 30-credit modules = 60 credits, per semester.

- ▶ Students studying for one semester only would not be able to sign up for any year-long (two semester-long) module options.

Please note that many courses, including those taught by University of Wolverhampton Business School have a minimum IELTS requirement of 6 or above.
